Circuit of The Americas™ seeking volunteer marshals for 2013 Red Bull MotoGP™ of The Americas event

AUSTIN, Texas (Dec. 14, 2012) – Circuit of The Americas will host the Red Bull MotoGP™ of The Americas event April 19-21, 2013, and the new purpose-built Grand Prix facility in Central Texas is seeking volunteer race marshals for the three-day program that is part of the premier motorcycle racing World Championship.

Interested parties should complete the Circuit of The Americas' Preliminary Volunteer Application Form located at <http://www.circuitoftheamericas.com/volunteer-motogp>. Applications will be reviewed when received and applicants will be notified as soon as possible. Additional information about the event and responsibilities will be distributed as it becomes available. Previous race marshal experience is preferred, but not required.

Individuals selected as volunteer race marshals will receive training and a number unique benefits in exchange for their service, including the chance to experience the very first MotoGP Championship event held at the Circuit's world-class sports and entertainment complex.

Tickets for the Red Bull MotoGP of The Americas are on sale now at www.circuitoftheamericas.com or www.ticketmaster.com.

About Circuit of The Americas

Circuit of The Americas is a world-class destination for performance, education and business. It is the first purpose-built Grand Prix facility in the United States designed for any and all classes of racing, from motor power to human power, and is home to the 2012 FORMULA 1 UNITED STATES GRAND PRIX™. Racing series joining the Circuit's 2013 line-up include MotoGP™, V8 Supercars™ and GRAND-AM Road Racing™. The Circuit of The Americas' master plan features a variety of permanent structures designed for business, education, entertainment and race use. Its signature element is a 3.4-mile circuit track. Other support buildings include an expansive outdoor live music space, an iconic 251-foot tower with observation deck, an events and conference center, a banquet hall as well as a state-of-the-art medical facility.
